

December 4, 2001

bombing of Pearl Harbor thrust the United States into World War II, galvanizing our country to fight for freedom in two continents from which America emerged as an international leader.

In the end 16,112,566 went to fight in WWII and 405,399 lost their lives in battle.

The bombing of Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, brought war to the doorsteps of America and drastically challenged our resolve as a nation. It is fitting that we commemorate the 60th anniversary by declaring December 7, 2001, as National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, not only as a reminder of the sacrifices thousands made that this Nation could triumph, but to reflect upon the spirit that continues to sustain us as we face new challenges today in a very dangerous world.

TRIBUTE TO CLIFFORD E.
LAMPMAN

---

HON. GARY G. MILLER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. GARY G. MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep regret that I rise to pay tribute to Clifford Erle Lampman, who passed away on October 28, 2001, leaving the cities that he served in California to mourn the loss of a respected business associate and friend.

After his honorable discharge from the United States Marine Corps, he graduated from the University of North Dakota and Denver University with civil engineering degrees. He obtained his Master's degree in Structural Engineering at the University of Southern California and attended Loyola Law School in Los Angeles, California. With the support of his wife, Gwen, he eventually established his own business, Lampman and Associates. Mr. Lampman's expertise in consulting and engineering soon opened doors to contracts with many California cities. Major projects that he successfully completed include the Alameda Corridor Railroad Lowering for Huntington Park and a massive three bridge project for the city of Corona. At the time of his passing, he was working for the city of Placentia as an executive advisor to the first railroad-lowering project in Orange County, known as the Orange Gateway Railroad Lowering Project.

Family, friends and business associates described Mr. Lampman as a visionary, charismatic leader, an inspirational optimist and a devout Christian who opened his heart and home to those in need of support, guidance and prayer. Four brothers and sisters, his wife, Gwen, seven children, nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild survive him, all who will experience a void that was once filled by his loving personality.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that this 107th Congress join me in celebrating the life and legacy of Mr. Clifford Erle Lampman.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN HONOR OF AUTHUR EDWARD UNZUETA

HON. GRACE F. NAPOLITANO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mrs. NAPOLITANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and salute a heroic WWII Navy veteran and a forty-six year resident of the 34th district, Authur Edward Unzueta. Authur represents the best of what it means to be an American; an individual devoted to both family and country. He served his country courageously and it is because of countless veterans like him that we are able to enjoy the freedoms we do today.

Arthur has had a distinguished naval career in service to his country achieving the rank of Gunner's Mate Third Class UNSR. His awards include, the Navy Good Conduct Medal for exhibiting outstanding performance and conduct during three years of continuous active enlisted service. He was also awarded the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with one silver and four bronze campaign stars for service in the Asiatic-Pacific Theatre and the World War II Victory Medal for service in the United States Armed Forces during the period 1941-1946. In addition, he earned the Philippine Liberation Ribbon, the Philippine Presidential Unit Citation and the American Campaign Medal for service in the American Theatre during WWII. After three years, two months and six days of dedicated service, Arthur was honorably discharged from the United States Navy in January 19, 1946.

The selfless attitude that characterized Arthur during his time in the military is evident in his devotion to his family and home. A resident of the 34th district since 1955, Arthur is the proud parent of three, Gary, Sally and Paula and devoted husband of fifty-three years to Patricia. Today Arthur takes pleasure in his retirement from a long employment at Owen's Illinois, a glass and china manufacturing company, surrounded by his four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and his two beloved boxers.

Arthur is a model American citizen and one I am proud and honored to represent. His bravery and courage have earned him our most heartfelt appreciation and respect. Please join me in thanking Arthur for his service to our country, dedication to the community and devotion to family and home. He remains an example to us all of a true American.

TRIBUTE TO ADVENTIST CHURCH SCHOOLS

---

HON. BOB SCHAFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. SCHAFER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the children of the Adventist Church Schools of Colorado. These children are donating two dollars each to support the children in Afghanistan and victims of the September 11th terrorist attacks. For this, Mr.

23907

Speaker, the United States Congress should commend them.

The children in the Colorado division of the Adventist Church Schools have responded to President Bush's call to have America's youth donate one dollar to the children of Afghanistan. Moreover, they are giving an additional dollar to support the children of New York City. There are twenty-one schools in Colorado participating in this program. The money raised will significantly help those in need.

In recognizing these children, Pat Chapman, of the Rocky Mountain Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, said, "The program will benefit a lot of children in Afghanistan, as well, as many children in New York." These exemplary children are excellent role models for our country.

The children in the Colorado division of the Adventist Church Schools are committed to helping in this time of tragedy. They are an example of the dedication and piety of America's youth. I ask the House to join me in extending our warmest congratulations to the children of the Adventist Church Schools of Colorado for their honorable efforts.

IN HONOR OF DEPUTY CHIEF ROBERT
MARTIN OF THE JERSEY
CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

---

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2001

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Deputy Chief Robert Martin of the Jersey City Police Department, for his outstanding law enforcement career and years of dedicated service on behalf of the residents of Jersey City.

A veteran of the Jersey City Police Department, Robert Martin excelled as a law enforcement officer. He joined the force in 1973 and was assigned to the 5th Precinct and South District Divisions. In 1979, he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and worked in the Bureau of Supervision. As Sergeant, Robert Martin assumed responsibilities that included heading up the Investigation Division's Street Crime Unit and the Special Investigations Unit. In overseeing the operations of these two units, Robert Martin was responsible for police investigations related to robbery, organized crime, and narcotics. While heading up the Special Investigations Unit, Mr. Martin was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant and eventually assumed the rank of Captain. As a result of his unyielding work ethic, in 1991, Robert Martin was appointed as Chief of Investigations for the Hudson County Prosecutors Office. Upon returning to the Jersey City Police Department in 1997, he was promoted to Deputy Chief.

A graduate of Bergen Community College and Jersey City State College, Deputy Chief Martin also attended the F.B.I. National Academy in Quantico, Virginia, and has a Master's Degree from Seton Hall University.

I would like to extend my gratitude to Chief Deputy Robert Martin for all he has done to ensure the safety and well-being of those individuals residing in New Jersey's 13th Congressional District.
